ARE WE LIVING IN A THIRD WORLD COUNTRY?

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Analogy From The Author I was, a normal average, separated single working mother trying to raise my children in a less than perfect world. I was, separated, and moving on with my life to build a future for my children after I left, my husband for valid reasons of infidelity with a sixteen year old girl in our home, and his physical, and verbal abuse towards me, with his added alcoholism. I worked, hard to support his career, and he became successful and forgot he had children. I worked various jobs around the schedules of my children whether it was a waitress, microfilm operator, driving cab, cleaning motel rooms, bartender, delivering balloons in costumes, whatever it took to make ends meet and give them some advantages, I never had. If not, I moved on to another job that would be. My children came first. I was, not a perfect mother and by no means they were perfect children. There is no such manual for either one. We can never project how our children will turn out, all we can do is teach them right from wrong, and guide them in values. All I ever wanted, was a better way of life for my children. We were, a normal family with normal problems, and were very close until they got older and drifted apart as most often family s do. There was always the little squabbles such as. sisters fighting over the bathroom, the use of each other s clothes or. Mom, I want to use the car. I had, strict rules in my house, and I never, had to use too much stern reprimand. I would not,...
