Not illustrated. 1853 Excerpt: . thus described how the Inventory is taken, I will now explain whrt use is made of it in closing the Leger. ON CLOSING THE LEGER. Preparatory Steps. After making a Trial Balance, open a Profit and Loss account, (unless previously opened,) and a Balance account. Next bring in the property on hand, i. e. place to the credit of each speculating property account, in the Leger, the amount of property belonging to that account, as shown by the Inventory-Book. Enter this in red ink, giving the date on which you close, and saying By Balance (Inv t.); to show that it is to be transferred to the Balance account; and make the opposite entry immediate on the debit side of Balance account, in black ink, saying To Mdse., or To whatever property account you have just made the red ink entry. In the column usually occupied by Journal folios, place the Leger folio of the account indicated by the entry. Each account representing any species of property, which you buy and sell to speculate upon--as Mdse. or Real Estate. This entry of the property unsold is sometimes made through the DayBook and Journal; but considering this useless labor, I have adopted the shorter and simpler method of placing it directly upon the Leger. All speculating property accounts must have the balances of property unsold credited to them in this manner, before they are closed. In this set there is only one such account--Merchandise; and...
