Balboa Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.This book takes you on the personal journey of Roslyn Bell (the author) from marrying her childhood sweetheart, giving birth to her children and building their dream home. But the perfect fairytale life was soon to be taken from her. On the way home from work as a heavy thunder storm breaks, when she rounds a corner the car aquaplanes across the road hitting a tree, which almost kills hers. The aftermath takes her on an incredible physical journey to learn to walk and the challenges that twist and turn as she grasps for a life she no longer has. With the physical scars under control the mental scars start to appear and again she is wrecked in mental state and inwardly she is in turmoil. In her quest to feel free her mirage breaks down with her fleeing her husband and taking her children in an attempt to feel better, this takes her to very dark places and leads her to doubt would she ever fully recover. However, something deep inside, her knowing spirit recognises that she may have fallen down but she was not broke. As uses all her incredible strength to re build her life both physically and mentally. As her mirage comes together again and life is getting more joyous on a routine check up she is diagnosed with cervical cancer, this time she recognises her choices and vows to live her life to the full. Within 9 months of surgery she has bought a shop, opened a ladies boutique which brings her a sense of purpose, allowing her to feel her self worth as she takes joy in serving. In her attempt to make a secure life...
