Zephyr Press, United States, 2000. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Set in the immigrant streets and tenements of Brooklyn, Jack Pulaski s stories sparkle with incident, character, memory, and a touch of the surreal. In Religious Instruction, a widowed scripture teacher channels her passion into a retelling of the primal stories of the bible that transixes her adolescent students: When she marries again we will not hear these stories, not the same way. Music Story sketches a chilling portrait of urban ethnic territoriality, while in Father of the Bride, a young Jew pursues the skeptical, profane and eccentric Carlos, seeking his daughter s hand. Get the book and read it. And then shower copies on everyone you know who still enjoys moving his or her eyes from left to right. -Sven Birkerts. Jack Pulaski has his turf, and the talent to work it. - Andrei Codrescu.
