

The Riddlers

By Steven Braund, Steven Braund

Atlantic Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Riddlers, Steven Braund, Steven Braund, A menacing sequence of drawings is accompanied by a hand-drawn poetic text which seems to explore the awakening from a dream. A work of graphic literature. "I wanted to return to the simple pleasure of pencil drawing. The story developed on its own as the drawings appeared; suggesting what eventually seemed a fully formed whole (to me anyway). Im always amazed at how different people see different things when they view/read the same work. In this case, Im happy with the feeling of ambiguity, as the piece is meant to function in a poetic way. It attempts to present something about the interdependent relationship of good and evil, and of our deep state of unconsciousness; we are asleep. Beyond that, I would rather let it speak for itself, otherwise I would have just written a description of the idea instead." -- Steve Braund.

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You wont feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
