

Tailsville Trail: The Almost True Story of the Old West

By Dan Drotzman

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Wild West has gotten a little Old and dusty. Travel along the Tailsville Trail with Ford Beagle as his tail swings from adventure to adventure and in the process cleans up the places you think you know. This is the almost true story of how the Old Wild West was tamed. Along Ford Beagle's adventure, which begins with two explorers, Lewis Leonberger and Clark Corgi and their Pack of Discovery, you'll travel up the recently discovered river named after Missouri Maltese. From St. Louis, it's up the Muddy Mo to Fort Yankton. You'll arrive just in time to help send off General George Armstrong Collie and the 7th Pack on their exploration of the West and ultimately on their way to the Little Big Bone to do battle with Sitting Bull, Crazy Pooch Plott, Geronimo Redbone Coonhound and their pack of Indian Spitz. What awaits General Collie and the 7th is only a small piece of this story. You'll get nose-to-nose with Billy The Pup Harrier, Black Bart Beagle, Doc Hound, Wyatt...
