*Extensive guideline! Its such a great go through. It is definitely basic but surprises in the 50 % of the pdf. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Duquesne University Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Facing Nature: Levinas & Environmental Thought, William Edelglass, James Hatley, Christian Diehm, Despite its attention to questions of ethics and "the ethical", contemporary continental philosophy has often been disengaged from inquiring into our ethical obligation to nature and the environment. Essays specifically highlight the otherness of nature, the vulnerability and suffering of non-human animals, the idea of an interspecies politics, the role of nature in ethical life, individual responsibility for climate change, and the Jewish understanding of creation as points of contact between Levinas' philosophical project and environmental thought. Levinas is also brought into conversation with dialogue partners who enhance this connection, such as Theodor Adorno, Hanna Arendt, Tim Yilngayarri, Maurice Merleau-Ponty, and Henry David Thoreau. While widely relevant to all those who...
