Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The International at Lucerne, 1919: The Resolutions, the Provisional Constitution The International Socialist Conference meeting at Lucerne urges the Socialists in all lands to study, with a view to definite action, the political and economic problems and conditions created by the War. There exists to-day in the whole world a great struggle on the part of capitalism to retain a dominating authority in the sphere of politics and industry. The extent of this conflict is visible in all the great events of the moment - the Paris Conference, the intervention in Russia, the financial policies of the governments, high costs of living, c. The International welcomes the splendid efforts being made by the working classes to transform capitalism into socialism and to prevent the old order of exploitation being again firmly founded upon Society; in particular does it welcome with enthusiasm the new Socialist governments and claims for them internal political liberty and self-determination at the hands of the Associated Governments, and pledges to them the support of the International Working Class Movement. The International...
