Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in.e. smith sleighs post structural poetry collection, These Things are a One Thing, contains moments of persuasive veracity. Her words are reflections on our shared early century and early millennial experiences. Her thoughts about our world are at once fresh, somber, affirming and funny. Sleigh dug out buried truths that you know but your conscious may not acknowledge. The architecture of her language is original and dynamic. Her words are the readers to possess. Sleighs poems envelope the reader in authenticity. They entertain and stain the consciousness. Sleigh possesses the capacity to show the reader how to listen for the enigmatic. She brought me along, down this path, into the present, into the world in general, and into her world as well. Every poem in the collection contains the words thing or things. The things can be friend or foe. They challenge us. They remind or admonish us. They delight. In her poem, a winter remembrance, you find that the things cause her to remember: in the wintry city of words the things visited me without criteria they came to judge without warning they appeared in the sound of my footsteps crunching frost. . . I will leave it to the reader to finish the poem within sleighs book and to join her on the expedition. e. smith sleigh writes poetry, and historical fiction. She won recognition for her writing in the US and abroad. Sleigh was educated at Murray State University and the universities of Delaware and Michigan, taught at the college level, and has traveled extensively. She now lives in Robert Penn Warren country where she draws inspiration. Sleigh has written six poetry collections. Her latest work is...
