Milepost 26 (Hardback)

By Roy Le Croisette

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A milepost is something that tells you that you have not come as far as you think. Occasionally, it is prefaced by What, already? or Good Lord, and you imagine that you are making real progress. Don't be deceived--you have probably met this one before and gone round again. It might dawn on you as you pass by and the path gets muddier that you have indeed been here before--familiar circumstances. You can cope? Sometimes it appears in a different guise and kids you that it is a wonderful opportunity. You will cope unless old habits take over. Watch it! We're creatures of habit; we take comfort in routine. Another initiation . . . so what? And the rest of the gang is probably thinking that you have done it before, big head. By the time we write an autobiography, we are getting on a bit unless we are naturally famous or have a full-size felling axe to grind. Our wives and friends have heard all our stories before, so we can be comfortably ignored. Guides and social friends, be...
