Social centers.--By promoting the use of public buildings, by the entire public, for educational, cultural and recreational purposes. Health instruction.--By teaching in easily understood terms the dangers and the methods of avoiding preventable human disease, needless suffering, and premature death. Visual instruction.--By collecting and circulating educational lantern slides. moving pictures and written lectures to schools, societies, clubs, and other organizations. District organizations.--By providing the connecting link between the man who knows and the man or woman who needs to know. Continuation schools.-- Wisconsin requires all boys and girls working at gainful occupations and not yet 16 years of age to attend continuation schools one-half day, or four hours, each week, asserted the first of a number of charts illustrating the work of the continuation schools of Milwaukee. The aims of the continuation schools shown in the photographs of the exhibit were declared to be: To save the investment the community has already made in the education of these boys and girls in the elementary schools; to furnish those attending with practical experience varied in character which will be of service in the problem immediately before them--that of selecting an occupation at which they may earn a substantial wage and in many instances utilize special talents; to inculcate standards of moral, civic, and social conduct. The plan is described on the charts as follows: All of these boys and girls are required to come...
