Excerpt: .of the finest and cleanest football contests ever witnessed on a college gridiron, when they administered a severe defea: to the Panthers. The score, twenty to nothing, was adequate revenge for the past six defeated years. Pitt was completely outplayed and the defeat was decisive. A run of seventy-five yards for a touchdown by Captain Higgins, Charlie Way s fifty-three yard sprint through the entire Pitt team and Harry Robb s generalship were the outstanding features of the game. A football write-up would not be complete without mention of Frank Scott and Ollie DeVictor, two of the most renowned of the Track House Team. For without Scotty s beans the valiant gridiron warriors would soon be downed with indigestion, and without Scotty s watchful eye the Varsity Table Athletes would founder in a short time from too many seconds on dessert. As for Ollie...
