Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Messages and State Papers of Governor S. V. Stewart of Montana: 1913-1920 Mr. President and Members of the Thirteenth Legislative Assembly: The laws of Montana require that the Governor submit to you at this time such information and recommendations as he may deem pertinent. The same Constitution and Statutes define the respective functions of the three branches of the government. The chief present concern, therefore, involves an intelligent understanding not alone of the legal duty but as well of the official and personal obligation imposed thereby. No one of us was elected to office as a personal compliment or as a means of affording a holiday. Public office may or may not prove pleasant and satisfactory to the individual, but it should always carry serious responsibility. The truest and most enduring satisfaction to be derived from official life must ever result from calm and serene contemplation of a work completed and well done rather than from careless ease and comfort in office. The Thirteenth Legislative Assembly may and should make a record for efficiency that will compare most favorably with any past session. To do this two things are essential and should at all times be kept in mind: First: A clear understanding of the finances of the State and a consistent application of that knowledge in making appropriations; Second: A full realization of the fact that the people who sent us here as their representatives have declared at the polls in no unmistakable terms that certain reforms must be forthcoming. Care in Appropriations. Our State is rich in resources but not in ready money. Our institutions are building and need cash. However laudable may be the ambition and...
