Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from American Representation in Occupied Germany, Vol. 1: 1920-1921 When, in December 1918, the Allied and Associated Armies of Occupation marched into Germany and occupied the Rhineland under the terms of the Armistice Agreement, the United States was represented by the Third American Army. On July 3, 1919, that army as a unit having ceased to exist, the American Forces in Germany came into being and took over the duties of occupation. The Treaty of Versailles had been signed on June 28, Annexed to it was the Rhineland Agreement which provided in part that a civilian body styled the Interallied Rhineland High Commission, and hereinafter called the High Commission, shall be the supreme representative of the Allied and Associated Powers within the occupied territory. It shall consist of four members representing Belgium, Prance, Great Britain and the United States. The Treaty came into force on January 10, 1920, and on that day the period of military government in the portions of the Rhineland occupied by the forces of Belgium, France and Great Britain came officially to...
