In the year 1884 Margaret McDonnell, a small town preacher lay ill on her bed as fellow pastors, neighbors, and family stood close by. As she murmured on an on while fading in and out of her feverish, ill slumber, Margaret McDonnell was in a disturbing dream of the Rapture of the Church out of the times of the great tribulations spoken of in the teachings of Christ in (Mat. 24; Mk. 13; Lk. 21). Two pastors who stood over Ms. McDonnell sick bed as they prayed for their servant of the cloth to recover, they heard her speaking of the dream of her head as she murmured in and out. These two pastors thought what they heard might be a great idea to help build Church membership up. Therefore they took off with this Church Rapture message to give to the congregation, and this is how the Rapture doctrine spread from Margaret McDonnell got onto the entire Church world doctrine. Margaret McDonnell awakened and told her nurses aid that she had just suffer a very evil dream of her head while sleeping. And thus further explaining how the Rapture theory is not scriptural. The King James Bible was translated and published in the year 1611, whereby Jesus The Christ and all of the prophets of the Bible prophesied quite the contrary to Margaret McDonnell 1884 dream. In this book Knowledge of the Raptured and Ransomed Prophetess Michelle Quiller utilizes the entirety of the Bible to show and prove that God Church will be Ransomed as the Redeemed of the soon coming Kingdom of the Lord and how that the Rapture Doctrine is not Biblical behooved me at first that Father chose...
